What is the British Minigolf Association?

The British Minigolf Association (BMGA) is the governing body for Minigolf Sport, including Crazy Golf and Adventure Golf. Formed in 1998 the BMGA organises Minigolf events for its members across the UK.

Competitions organised by the BMGA include the British Championships, the British International Open, the British Masters and the World Crazy Golf Championships. The BMGA also plays a supporting role in other Club, Invitational and Open tournaments at BMGA Affiliate Courses.

What are the benefits of being a BMGA member?

BMGA 'Tour Pro' Members receive:

- A BMGA Tour Card & Monthly e-newsletter
- Priority entry to BMGA Minigolf competitions & pre-event discount practice rates
- Ranking Points for competing in BMGA Tournaments – these count towards the BMGA Order of Merit
- Eligibility to compete for cash prizes in BMGA Tour events
- The 'Rules and Etiquette of Minigolf' DVD

How can I join the BMGA?

The annual cost to become a BMGA Tour Pro is £20.00. Please email membership@minigolf.org.uk to request an application form, or download a copy from the BMGA website at www.minigolf.org.uk.

Free Standard BMGA Membership is available via an online registration at www.minigolf.org.uk

The (Abridged) Rules of BMGA Minigolf:

1. There is a six-stroke limit on all holes. If the ball is not holed after 6 shots, score a 7
2. Each player plays the hole until they have holed out (and the ball comes to rest in the hole)
3. If the ball exits the green, place it at the point of exit. There is no Penalty
4. You may move the ball eight inches (20cm) from any obstruction
